Descendants of Nahum King

Generation No. 1

1. NAHUM⁶ KING (AMOS NAHUM⁵, WILLIAM⁴, JONATHAN³, JOHN², WILLIAM¹) was born 25 July 1783 in New Salem, Hampshire County, Massachusetts, and died 28 May 1856 in Kings Valley, Benton County, Oregon^{1,2,3}. He married SAREPTA NORTON 09 May 1807 in Albany, Columbia County, New York⁴, daughter of JAMES NORTON and DULANEY HOWE. She was born 12 November 1791 in Albany, Albany County, New York⁵, and died 14 July 1864 in Kings Valley, Benton County, Oregon⁶.

Notes for NAHUM KING:

A biographical sketch of Nahum & Serepta Norton King from a great granddaughter, Bertha King, dated April 2, 1958, lists a total of 16 children. Some seemed to have died as young children; perhaps that is why they are not listed elsewhere. Additional children are:

1. Serepta born 18 March 1808
2. Dulanny born 12 April 1811, died 1 October 1823
3. John born 23 March 1813, died 26 October 1845
4. Hannah born 30 November 1816, died 28 August 1825
5. James Russel born 22 June 1826, died 17 July 1829

The compiler states that her brother-in-law, Albert Van Etten, deceased 1940, began the genealogy and lists all 16 children and it appears that they were all born in Madison County, Ohio. Perhaps near Columbus.

First lived Madison County, Ohio, near Columbus, then moved to Franklin County, Ohio, then to Carroll County, Ohio, in 1841. In 1845 started for Oregon via Independence, Missouri.

Terrible Trail: The Meek Cutoff, 1845, by Keith Clark and Lowell Tiller, 1966, Revised, 1993. "The Wagons Roll", page 5:

St. Joseph Gazette, May 2, 1845: At a general meeting of the Oregon Emigration held at Mr. Waymeir's(sic) Encampment opposite St. Joseph in Buchanan Co. ...Whereupon the company proceeded to organize by electing their officers when it was declared by the Chairman that William G. Tvault of Kosciusko Co., Indiana, was elected Captain of said company. John Waymire was elected Lieutenant; James Allen, John Martin, William Frazier, and Alexander Smith, Sergeants; Nathan (Nahum) King, superintendent of driving cattle and John M. Forrest, Arnold Fuller, Philip Harris, Nathan King and John Heron (Herren), a Committee of Safety, and Rowland Chambers, Sheriff; and Frederick Waymire, Clerk. The Company then employed Mr. Clark as their pilot.

On motion of Capt. Tvault, Monday the 28th of April, 1845, was appointed the day when the Emigration will take up their line of march. (N.B. note: The Company did not leave on the 28th of April, owing to the death of Mrs. Fuller, wife of Arnold Fuller. Mrs. Fuller was from Lafayette Co. Mo.)

History of the Willamette Valley, Oregon, by Robert Carlton Clark, PH.D

Volume I - 1927, Chapter XII, "Beginnings of Settlement in Upper Willamette Valley", page 359 - 361.

The immigration of 1845 was larger than any that had preceded it; 3,000 persons arrived before the end of the year, doubling the white population of Oregon.

The immigration of 1845 is interesting also because of the attempt of 200 families guided by Stephen Meek, who in turn was probably inspired by Dr. Elijah White, to reach the Willamette Valley by a "cut-off" from the Oregon Trail. This body of immigrants was drawn away from the main train by the assurance that they would save very close to two hundred miles of travel by following the Malheur River and crossing the country to a pass at the head of the Willamette Valley. Meek, the guide, became lost and great were the hardships which followed. After many had died the wandering wagon train found the Deschutes River which was followed until the Columbia River was reached. (from narrative of Samuel Hancock, 27-28, 29.) Had this immigrant train passed through safely and speedily by the proposed route, an east to west highway to the Willamette Valley would probably have been definitely established that would have hastened settlement of the southern region.

The first settlers in the upper Willamette Valley, comprising the areas of the present counties of Lane, Linn and Benton, made their appearance in 1845.

Other early settlers in this section of the valley were Nahum King, 1846, with his three sons and son-in-law, Rowland Chambers, who settled and named King's Valley; Arnold Fuller and David Carson, both of 1846, who occupied land on Soap Creek.

The Oregon Book, Information, A - Z, by Connie Hopkins Battaile, 1998

Kings Valley, page 299: A Benton County valley and unincorporated community northwest of Corvallis on the Luckiamute River and Highway 223. It was settled in 1845 by Nahum King and family, survivors of the Lost Wagon Train. Fort Hoskins was located in the valley.

Lost Wagon Train, page 328: An 1845 wagon train of 800 people, traveling with 200 wagons and several thousand head of livestock on the Oregon Trail, that accepted Stephen Meek's offer to lead them over "Meek's Cutoff" west from Fort Boise. The aim was to go west and then north around the arduous Blue Mountains. However, the wagon train, suffering from privation and illness, became lost in the deserts of central Oregon. A rescue party from The Dalles found them somewhere in the Crooked River area and guided them back to The Dalles where the wagons that had taken the usual route had arrived six weeks earlier. At least 24 members died of disease and hardship on the cutoff, and 20 more died soon after. An 1853 wagon train, the first to use the Free Emigrant Road, was also known as The Lost Wagon Train.

Blue Bucket Mine, page 49: Somewhere in eastern Oregon during the 1845 wanderings of the Lost Wagon Train, the immigrants collected some yellow pebbles, later lost, and placed them in a blue bucket. When some members of the party later saw gold nuggets at Sutters Fort in California, they realized that the pebbles had been gold and undertook an unsuccessful search for their source. Further legends have also searched, all without luck, though the explorations led to the discovery of other gold in Eastern Oregon.

Nahum King Grave from July 15, 1992, King Folk Newsletter

In 1951 The Daughters Of the American Revolution wrote this description of Nahum King's grave: "This grave was originally marked with two large native boulders, as was his wife's grave beside him, near the edge of the grave, on the hillside back of their house on their Donation Land Claim near Wren (Benton County, Oregon).

This place is the first house on the left, just beyond the Y formed as the road from Wren joins the Corvallis-Newport road (Highway 20).

Nahum King came to the valley that bears his name, in 1845, stayed a year and went to Portland for a year and then returned to take a claim near Wren. Most of the rest of the large family are buried in the Kings Valley Cemetery close to the Isaac King DLC.

Bible records show that Nahum King was born July 25, 1783, and died May 28, 1856. His wife, Serepta Norton King, was born Nov. 12, 1791, died July 14, 1864.

At the present time, the old house is gone. Relatives showed us where the old house 'should' be."

Memorial stones for Nahum and his wife have been placed at Kings Valley Cemetery by the DAR when attempts to put them at Wren failed.

Madison County, Ohio, History - Township Officers:

Trustees - Nahum King is named as a trustee in each of the following years - 1825, 1827, 1829, 1832, 1833, 1836 and 1837. I believe that after 1837 he and his family moved to Missouri.

In 1833 Nahum King was named as a Justice of the Peace, in 1821 as an "Overseers of the Poor" and as a "Fence Viewer."

Nahum King's Probate: Case #172 - Oregon State Archives,

That said Naham King's estate has not been administered and that said Naham died some years since and that the undersigned is a resident and land holder in the said county of Benton whereon the undersigned asks that the letters of administration be granted to him on said estate. A. H. Gordon Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of November 1866.

B. Nelson, Clerk.

(Notes from Anne Trussell regarding the probate: The probate was initiated by someone I've never heard of, A. H. Gordon. It wasn't done until November 1866, more than 10 years after Nahum's death. The probate is interesting for what it DOESN'T say. Living King children's names are missing. Lucretia's (deceased) children are listed but not those of Abigail or Sarah, also both deceased. Sarepta is missing, which may make this an important key to determining her death year. Isaac died, a possible suicide or murder, only three weeks after the filing of the probate. And Luther got into the whole issue by demanding it be moved to Polk County."

3. LUCRETIA⁷ KING (*NAHUM*⁶, *AMOS NAHUM*⁵, *WILLIAM*⁴, *JONATHAN*³, *JOHN*², *WILLIAM*¹) was born 05 July 1809 in New York^{35,36}, and died 24 May 1862 in Kings Valley, Benton County, Oregon^{37,38,39}. She married HEMAN S. HALLECK 15 October 1827 in Madison County, Ohio^{40,41}, son of STEPHEN HALLECK and LUCY LAW. He was born 15 July 1803 in Chittenden County, Vermont, and died 27 November 1877 in Oregon^{42,43}.

Notes for LUCRETIA KING:

From: Terrible Trail: The Meek Cutoff, 1845, page 211

Nahum's daughter, Lucretia, who was B. 5 July 1809, N.Y., came to Oregon with her husband, Heman Halleck, and several children in 1853. Lucretia and Heman were married 15/16 October 1827, Madison Co., Ohio. They took up a donation land claim, No. 2376, in Benton Co; Lucretia D. May 1860.

1853: List of Immigrants to Oregon Taken at Umatilla Agency by Thomas K. Williams, first published by the Oregonian Newspaper on 29 October 1853. The book, Oregon Geographic Names, by Lewis A. McArthur, 5th edition, page 751, states: this office was at the Umatilla Indian Agency, about 150 miles east of The Dalles, on the route to Salt Lake. Thomas K. Williams, was employed as an assistant to P.F. Thompson, Indian Agent for the Umatilla Indian Agency, in 1853. The list shows Hallock, H.S., w, 1s, 5d. (Wife, 1 son and 5 daughters).

There is a discrepancy with Lucretia's date of death on her tombstone in Kings Valley Cemetery. The date of death on the stone is 14 May 1860. However, in the 1860 census, taken 12 July 1860, Lucretia is listed as living. Further research by Anne Trussell found Lucretia's brief obituary in the Oregon Argus newspaper, 5 July 1862, 4:1. Died in Kings Valley, May 24, Lucretia, wife of H. S. Hallock, aged 53 years.

Burial: July 1862, Kings Valley Cemetery, Benton County, Oregon⁴⁴

Notes for HEMAN S. HALLECK:

In the History of Madison County, Ohio, Heman Halleck is listed as a Constable for the following years:
1837 - 1838, 1842, 1844, 1845 - 1846.

1850 census - "Hiram" Hallock family in Ray County, Missouri. Two youngest children, Amos (8) and Mary (2) born in Missouri. Does not fit with above - should still be in Ohio in 1846. This census would put them in Missouri in 1842 - perhaps an error on the census.

He married SUSAN COOPER 07 January 1840 in Licking County, Ohio⁵³. She died 26 October 1845 in The Columbia River, Oregon Territory.

Notes for SUSAN COOPER:

Terrible Trail: The Meek Cutoff, 1845 by Keith Clark & Lowell Tiller, page 119.

He was born 26 December 1818 in Madison County, Ohio^{62,63,64}, and died 06 May 1859 in Kings Valley, Benton County, Oregon^{65,66,67}.

Notes for HOPESTILL KING:

Terrible Trail: The Meek Cutoff, 1845 states that Lucius Carolus Norton & Hopestill King were married in Franklin County, Ohio, on 9 October 1839. (page 225).

The Brazen Overlanders states that they were married in Carroll County, Missouri.

When Lucius Norton died on May 6, 1859, at age 40, Hopestill was left with 8 young children. With pioneer spirit, Hopestill proceeded to run a way-stop for travelers in the Coast Range called Norton Station. Later a railroad station in the extreme eastern part of Lincoln County was named Nortons for the Norton family who lived nearby. Hopestill died at Norton Station on November 16, 1892, and was buried with other members of her family in the Kings Valley Cemetery.

We Claimed This Land: Portland's Pioneer Settlers by Eugene E. Snyder

The Amos King DLC is bounded approximately by these streets: on the north, Lovejoy and that line extended westward; on the south, Jefferson from 18th to about 21st and then due west through Washington Park; on the west, where 33rd Avenue would be if it were put through. On the east, the boundary is more complex. Originally, it ran northward from Jefferson along 18th to Burnside and then diagonally across streets and blocks from Trinity Place to 22nd and Lovejoy. But that boundary became the subject of a land dispute. The controversial line separated the King claim from the claim of Captain John H. Couch, another DLC settler. The original line had been determined by a survey which Captain Couch had ordered to be done in 1845 by Thomas Brown, the principal surveyor in the Portland area at the time. But in 1850, Mr. King had the line re-surveyed, by D. P. Thompson, the deputy U.S. surveyor. This later survey pushed the line eastward, into Captain Couch's territory. But Captain Couch had his survey recorded and had occupied his claim continuously since August 1848. So there was a confrontation between two of Portland's wealthiest and most influential clans. The battle between the Couchs and the Kings was finally settled by a compromise which moved the line eastward 300 feet, running from about 18th and Burnside to about 20th and Lovejoy. The compromise transferred 25 acres from the Couchs to the Kings.

In the 1850's the King claim was undeveloped. An old-time resident, who was a child in Portland from 1855 to 1860, recalled that "Amos King's tannery hillside was a great place for blackberries - the most delicious in the area. The whole hillside was covered with wild blackberries."

In 1856 Mr. King built a "mansion" at the corner of 20th and Washington Streets. It was the family home for the rest of his life.

SARAH KING CHAMBERS

Sarah King Chambers was born July 25, 1823, in Madison County, Ohio, to Nahum and Serepta King.

In the spring of 1845, she, along with her husband, Rowland, and their children Margaret and James, joined other members of the King family on their migration west. Their destination was the Willamette Valley of Oregon, for a new beginning in a land which held great promise.

With about 1,000 other emigrants and 200 wagons, the King party chose to follow Stephen Meek in an ill-fated attempt to cross central Oregon on their way to the upper Willamette Valley, near present-day Eugene. Meek convinced them that this new route would avoid many hazards of the Blue Mountains, the restless Cayuse Indians, and the perilous journey down the Columbia River.

Their group became known as the "Lost Wagon Train of 1845." Not really lost, but desperate for water in these high deserts, they abandoned their plans for a new route and turned north toward the Columbia River and the established trail to Oregon. They arrived at the mission in The Dalles in October in a most deplorable condition.

Sarah could not complete that journey. She died on September 3, 1845, and was buried here, alongside the "Terrible Trail." The cause of death was not recorded in contemporary accounts.

There were twenty-three other known deaths along the cutoff route from where they left the Oregon Trail at the crossing of the Malheur River (in present-day Vale, Oregon) until they rejoined the Oregon Trail at the mission at The Dalles.

With Jacob Pittman representing her, the court appointed him her guardian and she filed for divorce from John Shipley on 14 February 1859. John Shipley filed for divorce on 31 March 1859, on grounds of polygamy. The divorce was granted sometime after June 1859. Rhoda married Jacob Pittman in 1859.

Notes for MARGARET MARIA HALLECK:

In the pension record application of Margaret M. Halleck Erwin is a baptismal record from St. James' Cathedral in Vancouver, Washington, dated 25 November 1873, for her three Erwin sons: Lyman Joseph, Stephen & Francis Milton, the first about 9 years old, the second about 7 years old and the third about 5 years old. The last name is misspelled "Irwin."

Unknown newspaper obit for Mrs. Margaret Lyndon - extraction:

Mrs. Lyndon was one of the oldest timers of her sex in Alberta, and was the first white woman in Southern Alberta, the wife of Col. McLeod being the next to arrive. She came to Alberta with her husband from Salt Lake City by wagon, the journey taking from five to six months. The journey was no picnic and miles and miles had to be traveled over bad trail, or no trails at all, and deep rivers had to be forded. The cattle were driven across and the boys and men swam while the Indians conveyed the lady through the deep waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon were the first settlers in the Porcupine Hills, and they arrived in the fall of 1882. Prior to being in Utah, Mrs. Lyndon had been in Oregon and she came to Salt Lake City by stage before there was a railroad.

The deceased lady who was about sixty-four years of age, had four sons, one of whom died in South Africa during the war. Mr. Lyndon died in Calgary eight years ago. Enternment took place in Macleod Tuesday.

Notes for CHARLES AUGUSTUS LYNDON, SR.:

1891 Southern Alberta Census lists Charles Lyndon, age 50, born Ireland, Roman Catholic, rancher.

Spouse is Maggie, age 43, born NS (Novia Scotia) which is incorrect - she was born in Missouri, religion, Methodist. Under Lyndon only son William is listed with them - age 17, born Novia Scotia, which is also incorrect - he was born in Utah.

Under Erwins are Margaret's three sons by George Erwin & it appears that Lyman & Roy (?) are also living with the Lymans. Oldest son Stephan A. Erwin seems to be on another page.

Southern Alberta Pioneers and Their Descendants: Captain Lyndon served for twenty-four years in the British Navy. Following the Crimean War he retired and emigrated to Salt Lake City, Utah, U.S.A. In 1881 he purchased horses and cattle and came north with his wife and son William, aged 8. Charles Lyndon came to the Porcupine Hills in 1881 and establisbed the "Circle L" Ranch. Supplies had to be obtained from Fort Benton, a thirty day trip. The Lyndon Post Office was built in 1893 at the ranch - it later became a community centre. In 1893 a dam was constructed at Lyndon Creek and an irrigation system was installed. Charles acquired more land and had one hundred and thirty acres under irrigation. He was born in 1838 in Dublin, Ireland, and died in 1904 at Calgary. In 1873 at Salem, Oregon, he was married to Margaret Hallcok, who was born at Louisville, Kentucky, and died at Calgary in 1911. They had one son, William.

NOTE: the story of Margret's birth in Kentucky has never been proved. Her family was actually living in Missouri at that time. And Margaret's pension application from her first husband, George Erwin, gives the marriage to Charles Lyndon as 22 April 1898 in Northwest Territories, Canada. The 1873 date in Salem, Oregon, is not listed in any records in Oregon. Possibly a date they used because their son, William, was born in October 1874, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Today the Lyndon Ranch is known as the Lucasia Ranch and is operated as a guest (dude) ranch. It was purchased from the Lyndon family in 1974 by Wayne and Judy Lucas.

Burial: March 1903, Ft. McLeod, Calgary, Alberta, Canada³³⁷

Marriage Notes for MARGARET HALLECK and CHARLES LYNDON:

The Lyndon family in Canada gives the date of the marriage of Charles Augustus Lyndon and Margaret M. Halleck as October 1873 in Salem, Oregon. No record has been found of this marriage in Marion County records or Catholic Church records for that time period. They probably went with this date because of the birth of their son in 1874. But it cannot be proven.

In Margaret's application for a restoration of her pension as the widow of George W. Erwin, she states that her earlier pension was terminated because of her marriage to Charles August Lyndon on the 22nd of April 1898 in the Northwest Territories, Canada. Now he has died (4 March 1903) and she is asking to have her earlier pension reinstated.

He married (2) CAROLINE LADD 10 August 1866 in Benton County, Oregon³⁴⁴, daughter of ANDREW LADD and MARY. She was born Abt. 1853 in Oregon.

Notes for LUTHER KING:

Luther King was sentenced to one year in the Oregon State Penitentiary, beginning April 22, 1873, supposedly for marrying an underage girl - abduction - (Caroline Ladd) without her parent's permission. Luther's present day family says it was because her parents did not like Luther and had at first given permission, then withdrew it and had him arrested.

Luther King's parents and siblings died in the Columbia River near The Dalles (1845) when their raft overturned as they finished their Oregon Trail trek from Missouri. Luther was the only survivor and was raised by various family members. In the 1850 Oregon census he is age 10, living with the Price Fuller family - Abigail Fuller, wife of Price, was Abigail King, Luther's aunt.

Notes for JAMES PLUNKETT:

Interview with Mrs. Bertha Thompson, Mark Phinney, WPA, June 1938

(Mrs. Thompson was daughter of James Plunkett & Ashnah Norton Plunkett)

My father, James Plunkett, was born in 1837 and came to California in 1839. I do not have any information as to his family. Father came to Fort Hoskins with the Fourth California Volunteers. Here he found a wife, and when the regiment was disbanded and the fort discontinued in 1865, he remained in the Valley.

Father was the bass drummer in the drum corps at Fort Hoskins under Phil Sheridan. My mother was a member of the King clan which settled Kings Valley in 1846. The head of the clan was Nahum King. Mother was born in 1847 on the 8th of February. It was claimed that she was the first white child born in what is now Benton County, but there are others who make the same claim.

She married ORTHELOW BAGLEY 04 September 1859 in Benton County, Oregon^{669,670}. He was born 28 January 1830 in Erie County, New York^{671,672}, and died 04 December 1920 in Suver, Polk County, Oregon⁶⁷³.

Notes for ORTHELOW BAGLEY:

W.P.A. Interviews in Polk county, ca. 1938 - source not identified

O. J. Bagley and two brothers, Jasper now of Lewisville and A. J. of Portland, were born at Airlie. O. J. was born 15 June 1860, Jasper 1861 and A. J. in 1863. Their father, Othello Bagley, came to Oregon with F. A. Patterson, father of Governor Isaac Patterson in 1849 from the gold fields in California. Bagley's mother was the former Margaret Chambers of King's Valley. Mr. Chambers and Mr. King were the first settlers of King's Valley. Mr. Chambers built the first grist mill there in 1848. Mr. Bagley moved to Suver and was a rural mail carrier for many years.

Mary Bagley Steele's death certificate (1918) states that Orthellow Bagley was born in Indiana and Mary Chambers Bagley in Kings Valley, Oregon! Informant was George Steele, Mary's husband. I believe both of these to be in error.

He was born 10 December 1864 in Ukiah, Mendocino County, California^{1290,1291}, and died 04 August 1936 in Banks, Washington County, Oregon^{1292,1293}.

Notes for LAVINA ELLEN HALLECK:

According to the family history of Dean Sellers, Lavina Ellen Halleck Sellers' ninth great grandfather, Peter Hallock, was one of the 13 Pilgrims to land in New Haven in 1640. He was the first to step ashore at Southold, Hallock's Neck, Long Island, having left England to escape religious persecution.

The record of the King family (Lavina's grandmother was a King - Lucretia King Hallock) starts with William King who was born in 1595 in Somersetshire, England, and who arrived in America in 1635.

Surprisingly enough, Cindy Sellers Stang's husband, Toby Brail Stang, is also descended from a family that came on the same ship as William King in 1635 - Toby's ancestor was the leader of the group, Rev. Joseph Hull. They also left England for religious freedom and settled in Massachusetts.

The Oregonian: Portland, Oregon, 25 April 1972 - Funeral Notices

Sellers, Amos J., 258 3rd Street, Hillsboro; brother of Bernard, Dean and Charles Sellers. Services Wednesday, 1:30 p.m., Fuiten Mortuary Chapel, Forest Grove.

A lady I met in the beauty shop in the 1990's in West Salem, Oregon, (Eleanor Ragan Finn) knew "Jiggs" Sellers. She and her husband owned, I believe, a motel on the Oregon coast and Jiggs worked for them and also served as a caretaker for them when they were away. We discovered this because she heard me talking about Sellers one day. Upon further discussion we even discovered that Cindy's Sellers line shared a family with hers. John Miller & Mary Ann Keene Miller were Eleanor's 3rd great grandparents - they are Cindy's 5th great grandparents. Eleanor and I shared family lines quite often and she gave me a book about the family's trip to Oregon. She was a very sweet lady - in her mid-80's when I first met her but sharp as a tack!

He was born Abt. 1859 in Linn County, Oregon¹³²².

Notes for MARY LUCRETIA HALLECK:

On her death certificate, the informant, her son G. E. McFadden, listed Mary's parents as: John Halleck, born England, and Mary Taylor, born England! Difficult to understand where he came up with that.

Also stated that she had lived in California for 50 years which would mean ca. 1894, only 7 years after she and William H. McFadden were married. Their sons were born in 1888 & 1890 in Albany, Linn County, Oregon. Lived in Sacramento 25 years, ca. 1919.

In her mother, Emma J. Miller Halleck's obituary, dated March 28, 1926, she is listed as daughter, Miss Mary Halleck of Sacramento.
