Kings Valley, Oregon, School House

A small group of the descendants of Mahan and Sarapts (Norton) King gathered in Kings Valley on Saturday, June 25, 1988. No meeting in the formal sense was held but members conversed and traded information on the family. Some of those present were: Bill King and his wife, Gladys, of Lincoln City, Or. (President of the group as elected in 1987), Jim King, Mrs. Stuart/Stewart, Maxine Bell and husband, Jesse Bell, David Trask, Mrs Joy Chambers and 3 members of her family,

Pat Plunkett Bearden, Carole Norton Putman, and

A pot luck lunch was shared by all. After the meeting several members took a short walk behind the Kings Valley Store to view the old grist mill of Rowland Chambers. The old building (built in 1852) was without a roof and the walls were falling down but the sturdy construction was easily observed.
