Welcome to the King's family web site.

Nahum and Serepta King came to Oregon in 1843 on the Oregon Trail. They settled in a little valley in the Coast Range and named it Kings Valley. Their sixteen children left many descendants now living all over the United States. This web site is an attempt to gather information about the King Family and make it available to all of those descendants.

King Family Tree

Trace the hundreds of descendants of Nahum and Serepta King.

Back When in Benton County

A series of articles written by Benton County Historian Kenneth Munford and King descendant Charlotte Wirfs. Learn about their trek across country on the Oregon Trail and their lives after settling in Kings Valley.

King Family Connections

There are hundreds of descendants from Nahum and Serepta (Norton) King. These are their family stories.

King Family Reunions

A family reunion is held in Kings Valley the weekend after Father's Day each year. You can read the highlights and minutes from the reunions.

King Family Information

A collection of articles and resources about the Kings. You will find a listing of books in the Nathan King Library, a reading of the Kings Valley Pioneer Cemetery, various letters and articles from and about the early settlers.

Kings Folk Newsletter

The Kings Folk Newsletter is a great source of stories and information about the King Family. Sign up to get your copies delivered now.

Oregon Trail Links

A King family web site would not be complete without information about the Oregon Trail. This is a collection of links to web sites about the Oregon Trail.
